Coming up in June:

June 7 PD Day- report card writing for the staff

Frozen treat day will be held on the last day of school to make up for the two food days missed throughout the year. Ice cream sandwiches to be served .

There are three retirements at the end of the year. Four new teachers have been hired for next year.

For the the retirees, council has given a gift card to each educator.

Fun fair:

hours from 4-8 pm

Lots has been organized and taken care of from the last meeting. Bake sale and posters made by the kids to be confirmed.

Lisa C to have two teenagers to volunteer to do face painting to help with the demand, we will need to buy face paint.

Possible dance party, where parents have to stay with their children from 7-8

Volleyball net to be set up, glow sticks to be provided by council.

Arrangements for EDP to be confirmed, where are they going to be during set up?

Budget:

Balances: Scotiabank-$16800

PayPal -$11300

We still have milk program,Subway and pita pita still have o be paid for ,Sarah will look in the milk.

Ice cream is going to be about $500

Funfair costs us money and is not a fundraiser.

For leftover funds, we should not be carrying over as much as we currently are into next year.

Lisa to take an additional $500for leaving ceremony to cove cost.

Other ideas were to look at getting balls for outside, a donation to sister school.

Other items:

Anita to take over for the food program

Volunteer breakfast is June 6

teacher appreciation breakfast will be a lunch this year on the PD day and council has voted to have that catered

Next year the co treasurer will eventually take over the role of treasurer, with hopes of someone in the position for at least the year or longer

Wrap up meeting June 7 from 7-8 ish
